ALBERTA RUMORING FOR DEFICIT $524,000: TO INCREASE INCOME TAX

Great Britain to Retain Its Lead in War Defence Army, Navy, Air Estimates Show Heavy Increases

BRITAIN SEEKS PARITY IN AIR

By GEORGE HAMILTON
LONDON, March 8.—(British demands parity in the air—we cannot accept a position of continuing inferiority," declared Sir Philip Sassoon, under-secretary for air, as he presented the air estimates to the House of Commons this afternoon. "We have made plain that our country must, so long as air force exists, have parity in the air, now or ever that parity may be attained."

At present Britain is ranked fifth among the principal air powers of the world. The estimates Sir Philip presented made public last week, called for addition of four squadrons to the Royal Air Force, including strengthening of the fleet air arm, but will leave the force considerably below the level of the plan formulated 10 years ago.

Sigvard Discards Royalty to Claim Actress as Bride

Romance Like Fairy Tale of Fiction Unfolds at Wedding of Swedish Prince to Commoner

CANBERRA, March 7.—King Gustaf of Sweden, here enjoying the day of the Riviera, is ready to assure his grandson, Prince Sigvard, an ample income despite the loss of his royal right by his marriage to a German commoner. The king may cancel the king's right to the Swedish nobility despite the marriage.

LONDON, March 8.—A romance like a fairy tale of fiction came true today with the wedding at Uppsala, Sweden, of Duke Sigvard, the youngest son of the king, to the beautiful Berlin actress, Zinka Petrus. The 29-year-old daughter of a Berlin insurance agent, Zinka, was the first commoner princess—the first commoner princess—ever to marry into the Swedish royal family. Her father-in-law, the king, is the first commoner to marry into the Swedish royal family.

The wedding of a commoner to a prince of the blood, the first of the kind in the history of the Swedish monarchy, was a surprise to many. The prince, who is the youngest son of the king, is the first commoner to marry into the Swedish royal family.

Obviously happy, the two were married by the superintendent of the registry office. They were married in the large council chamber of the castle. The bride, who is the first commoner to marry into the Swedish royal family, is the first commoner to marry into the Swedish royal family.

TORONTO, March 8.—Leo Johnson's Winnipeg Strathcons and a Hamilton Thistle four skipped by 26-year-old Gordon Campbell will fight it out for the MacDonald Trophy here this afternoon.

The match veteran curlers have hoped for, came into being this morning when Campbell, representing Ontario, overcame A. H. M. Hayes' Quebec champions 2-4 for his fifth victory in six games.

The triumph left the youthful Campbell a chance to win the trophy by winning over the Johnson rink in the afternoon and securing a playoff.

Johnson's Manitoba defeated New Brunswick by scoring a win over the fine quartette skipped by W. W. Crocker of New Brunswick.

Ontario and Manitoba were never pressed. The Winnipeg rink scored four on the first end, two on the third and led by 8-2 at the fifth. Another two on the sixth and a three on the ninth clinched the verdict. Johnson played carefully after building up his early weight. Higher Schedules Will Be Assessed To Make Balance

$3 Base Charge on Income Assessment to be Eliminated—No Increases in Lower Schedules Contemplated by Government

Elimination of the base tax of $3 on the Income Tax; the imposition of no new taxation and estimating for a net deficit of $24,107.75 are highlights of the budget speech of Hon. R. G. Reid, provincial treasurer, for the fiscal year commencing on April 1 next, delivered in the legislature on Thursday. It was the 11th consecutive budget speech of the provincial treasurer, the largest number any provincial treasurer has delivered in the history of Alberta.

The budget estimates, for the fiscal year, a total on income account of $14,846,962.12 and an expenditure of $15,403,174.88, leaving a net deficit of $556,212.76. On top of this there is provided for debt retirement, a sum of $746,565.57, thus leaving a net deficit, including debt retirement, of $524,107.75.

"This net deficit is estimated after provision for all ordinary provisions, or debt retirement, including sinking fund as usual. In this connection, it is interesting to note that Manitoba and Saskatchewan are not providing for sinking fund purposes this year beyond a negligible amount," declared the minister.

BIG CANADA PACKERS HEAD PUT ON GRILL

Ottawa Probe Delve Into Spreads Governing Hog
Industry

OTTAWA, March 8.—There is no agreement among meat-packing firms to control hog prices in Canada, J. S. McLean, president of Canada Packers, told the house business inquiry yesterday. No efforts are made to curb prices for the simple reason the packers make more money on a flimsy market.

All day long, the Toronto hall of the Canada-wide packing firm gave evidence before the committee investigating general labor conditions and business practices. His company will be investigated by auditors, the profits listed, salaries disclosed and the capitalization examined.

Canadian hog prices are dependent upon the British price for bacon, set weekly at a conference in London, the committee was told. When bacon prices advance, hog prices climb, although only 10 per cent of Canada's pork production is exported to the United Kingdom. Canadian packers are not informed in advance of the British bacon price and are at a disadvantage in the market.

STEADY OUTLET BUILT PRICE. The influence that has been placed on prices in a year from $2.25 to $2.35 has been the steady outlet for bacon in the English market, Mr. McLean said. The reason Chicago prices were only about $4.50 was there was no foreign outlet for American bacon. And the same reason accounted for low prices for Canadian bacon—a foreign market could not be found for Canada's annual output of 100,000 pounds would go up four or five cents a pound.

ALBERTA POOL HOGS. Mr. McLean proceeded to explain the situation relating to the pool hogs in Alberta and the system in vogue of establishing prices in the United Kingdom. Referring to the Alberta situation, Mr. McLean said that about 98 per cent of the hogs slaughtered at Kamloops-Fair and continuing cold today and Friday with northerly winds.

"Since the price is fixed on the open market, it is a healthy state of affairs to have the price on the 98 per cent shipped direct based on the two per cent that is tendered for prices in the open market," said D. K. Kennedy, U.S.A. Price Bureau.

"Whatever change may be made in buying hogs in the market will make no difference in the price."

BUYING NOT ALTER PRICES. Mr. Stevens said there was a large domestic market for 90 per cent of the hogs. "If there was from competition for the grade," Canada would there be a tendency for prices in the open market to go up?" he asked.

"When the price is low and all the farmers get 3 1/2 cents a pound is not so ruinous to the farmer" as Mr. Stevens said.

"Farmers were suffering a loss when selling at 3 1/2 cents, answered Mr. McLean, but no one suffered more when hog prices were low than the packers."

SHIP MERGER NOW APPROVED BY COMMONS

Opposition of Labor to Government Bill is Overcome

LONDON, March 8.—After defeating a Labor opposition amendment by 14 votes to 30, the House of Commons last night gave second reading to the government bill sponsoring the merger of the Cunard and White Star shipping lines and providing for huge government financial advances to the new company.

The bill provides for loans to the new company up to $5,000,000, of which $1,000,000 will be used to complete the 13,000-ton Quander now lying on the stocks of a Clyde shipbuilding firm, $1,500,000 will be working capital, and $2,500,000 for construction of another ship or ships.

The merger company will take over ships of the Cunard and Oceanic Steam Navigation (White Star) lines, and will sell or scrap ships not needed and operate those retained.

Leslie Hors-Bellish, National Labor financial secretary to the treasury, who has charge of the bill, told the House that the government advances and the interest on them would be secured by debentures and that the government, therefore, would not be a stockholder in the company but the mortgagee.

Reserve Judgment In Restraint Of Trade Damage Suit

Mr. Justice Ford reserved judgment in supreme court Wednesday evening at the conclusion of the three-day-long action for $100,000 damages brought by Mrs. Mary Ford, confectioner, against the Northern Alberta Dairy Pool and the Edmonton City Dairy on the alleged grounds that the defendants had refused to supply her with ice cream unless she stopped selling "double-header cones."

After watching it for nearly 20 minutes, however, we definitely decided it was a sea lion, though the largest I have ever seen."

Another member of the party, David Stephenson, an old-timer of the Vancouver Island coast, also expressed the opinion the creature was a sea lion. It was estimated the mammal was 18 feet long.

Others in the party declared the creature's motion in the water made it appear as if it had humps or coils but they agreed such was not naturally the case.

Scotch Industry Shows Shrinkage

LONDON, March 8.—The Scotch industries are not moving in the north, but rather are shrinking on the south, according to a report issued yesterday by Dr. J. A. Bowie, principal of the Dundee School of Economics.

Quite an inadequate share of the severe industrial activity has fallen to Scotland, he believes.

Over one-third of the 646 new factories recently established in Great Britain have been erected in the London area, while in Scotland 30 factories have been closed, and only 20 new ones have been opened.

Sick Whales Prove Boon

Ambergris Chunks Bring Wealth

To Needy Village Folk

SAN FRANCISCO, March 8.—Because a whale didn't feel so well, residents of Bolinas, a little town north of here, hoped yesterday to receive a modest fortune. If they did the money will go toward a wedding, doctors' bills, and a mortgage.

A chemist's report showed some of the waxy substance found on the beach there was ambergris, expelled by sick whales and used as a base for expensive perfumes.

Ambergris at present sells for $100 a pound.

If the 50 pounds of cheese-like stuff found by Mr. and Mrs. Louis Pepper, and their nine children, prove to be ambergris, the Peppers will buy back their beach sea room on which a bank recently foreclosed a $100,000 mortgage.

Ronald Gaudin, 24-year-old coast guardman and Miss Frances Pepper, his 20-year-old fiancée, plan an early wedding if the 17 pounds prove genuine.

Harold Henry, mail carrier, and his wife, Mildred, expect a child within a few days. They have ceased to worry about the doctor's and hospital bills. They also found a chunk.

AN OPEN LETTER TO THE CITIZENS OF EDMONTON

Believing that not only our customers but the citizens in general are interested in the Edmonton natural gas industry, we propose on this page in a series of open letters to discuss the problems with which from time to time your Gas Company is or has been confronted.

This Company was incorporated on the 28th day of May, 1923. During the ten years of our existence we have been plagued from time to time with attacks and recriminations arising out of the early history of the development of the Viking Gas Field.

That is an old story and one in which this Company had no part, but it has been told so many times that it is well to place it in the past.

A group of Edmonton citizens drilled the first well in the Viking field. The City of Edmonton itself expended some money in exploratory work. The proposal that the City should go into the natural gas business was submitted to a plebiscite and was rejected. Thereafter an Alberta group incorporated the Northern Alberta Natural Gas Development Company, Limited, and obtained a franchise in 1915 with a 25 cent rate limitation. The Viking field, City of Edmonton, with those who had already drilled the well, made a settlement with those who had already drilled the well. The war came on. The price of material increased to a point where construction under the franchise terms became impossible.

In 1922 the Board of Public Utility Commissioners, after an open hearing at which all parties were represented, estimated the probable cost of the plant and established a schedule of rates with a maximum of 46 1/2¢ per thousand cubic feet.

It was not until the following year that this Company was incorporated, bought out The Northern Alberta Natural Gas Development Company, Limited, drilled additional wells in the Viking field, constructed its transmission lines and distribution system, and finally in November, 1923, brought gas into Edmonton.

On Saturday we will publish our Second Letter.

NORTHWESTERN UTILITIES LIMITED

THE FLESH LUCKLESS COOLIES MADE VICTIMS OF TRAFFIC IN FLESH

Officials of International Settlement Move to Better Lot of 40,000 Street Vehicle Pullers.

SHANGHAI, March 8.—The 40,000 lowly ricksha pullers in this teeming centre have been the issue in a battle between the international settlement and the ricksha owners' association.

Under the pressure of public opinion demanding more humane treatment for these ignorant coolies, authorities ruling Shanghai's foreign quarter branded the ricksha owners' traffickers in human flesh exploiting misfortunes of these luckless Chinese for amazing profits, while the pullers are doing the work of mules to get but a few cents.

Officials announced they would clean up the ricksha and ricksha licenses permitting the owners to operate in the foreign area.

In a stinging reply the owners asserted that the authorities' charges were "based on incorrect facts and theories not applicable to ricksha labor."

Officials claimed that 150,000 were dependent on the poverty stricken pullers and were living in filth and degradation unknown elsewhere.

GRADING OF HOGS, EGGS UNDER PROBE

Complaint That Inspectors Favor Packers More Than Farmers

OTTAWA, March 8.—The regulations for grading hogs and eggs will be studied by the common committee on agriculture, F. H. Pickett (Cons., Yale, B.C.), referring the question to the committee. The government hog graders were often "pals" of the packers and favored their friends as against the farmers in grading the animals brought to the abattoirs, Mr. Pickett declared. The egg graders were also frequently against the farmers. Hon. Robert Weir, minister of agriculture denied the government officials grading hogs were not fair to the farmers. A considerable part of the time of his officials was occupied assisting the producers to improve the quality of hogs so that they would get a larger proportion of "selects."

The minister however welcomed any suggestions and explained the steps taken to overcome the difficulties attendant on grading hogs on the rail after slaughter with the object of eventually extending such a system.

'Business As Usual' Is Aim Of St. Paul Since Fire Ravage

ST. PAUL, March 8.—Having risen from the toll of lightning fire, St. Paul citizens are now working about their business and taking stock of their ruins. Residents burned out have found shelter in vacant houses and with friends. The piles of salvaged furniture, household effects and store fixtures have been moved away and the town is again taking the semblance of normalcy.

Many of the farmers from the surrounding district came into town to look over the catastrophe, which took an $80,000 toll in the business section.

Adjusters from Edinboro made hurried trips here and are busy arranging insurance claims.

The only remaining up-town hotel has proved entirely inadequate for many travelers and visitors have been placed in private homes.

Several firms have already repaired premises and are busy installing fixtures. Their motto, "business as usual," seems to be "business as usual."

Hog Price High At Ft. St. John

FORT ST. JOHN, B.C., March 8.—Tom Miller netted his usual five pigs which he hauled 60 miles to the steet on Thursday. The price advanced, hog prices have not made it worthwhile for ranchers here to market their stock.

SHANGHAI FIGHT FOR RICKSHA MEN

Officials of International Settlement Move to Better Lot of 40,000 Street Vehicle Pullers.

SHANGHAI, March 8.—The 40,000 lowly ricksha pullers in this teeming centre have been the issue in a battle between the international settlement and the ricksha owners' association.

Under the pressure of public opinion demanding more humane treatment for these ignorant coolies, authorities ruling Shanghai's foreign quarter branded the ricksha owners' traffickers in human flesh exploiting misfortunes of these luckless Chinese for amazing profits, while the pullers are doing the work of mules to get but a few cents.

Officials announced they would clean up the ricksha and ricksha licenses permitting the owners to operate in the foreign area.

In a stinging reply the owners asserted that the authorities' charges were "based on incorrect facts and theories not applicable to ricksha labor."

Officials claimed that 150,000 were dependent on the poverty stricken pullers and were living in filth and degradation unknown elsewhere.

He moved that the government appoint a commission to "control the importation of all fuels in Canada." The debate was unfinished when the house rose and the resolution may not be reached again for some time.

NEW SHIP BILL'S FIRST READING

OTTAWA, March 8.—Launching a new shipping bill in the senate yesterday Rt. Hon. Arthur Meighen, government leader, said defects which came to light in the Bill introduced last session had been corrected. The new measure was designed to establish a complete shipping law for Canadian shipping abroad but also to retain in effect the provisions of the British shipping acts until action is taken by the British dominions to establish their independent jurisdiction.

Notice was given in the upper chamber by Senator J. D. Taylor of New Westminster that he would ask for a special committee to investigate the operations of the sailing and ballast treaties with the United States.

The shipping bill was given first reading.

"Daddy" Browning's Daughter a Bride

During the past three years the advance in rural telephone service has been just as marked as that in highway construction, no less than 15,000 miles of telephone lines having been linked up with more than 2,000 instruments installed and 407 exchange stations created.

Of the 108 counties into which the province is divided, 104 are linked up by telephone, the remaining four counties being in a remarkably cheap, the charge being 50 cents about 17 cents (Canadian funds) for a five-minute talk over a unit of 70 miles.

This comprehensive system was built at a cost of only $3,000,000 Chinese money, ($1,070,000 in Canadian money). The telephone service pays a profit and services a population of some 200,000.

Ship Merger Opposed

LONDON, March 8.—The Labor opposition will make no objection to the bill for a North Atlantic shipping merger when it comes up for second reading in the House of Commons today on the ground the government is promoting huge sums for private industry without taking control.

parative basis, even though there is an increased expenditure of $200,000 for main and district highways providing the necessary financial arrangements can be made.

VOLE FOR RELIEF

A feature of the budget this year is that there is included a vote for unemployment and farm relief based on the promise that existing financial conditions in this respect will be contained. When unemployment funds a vital part of the work was met by special warrant, then by state and now they are being included in the estimates. Should the Dominion unemployment relief program be of any special aid to the provinces, the costs in this line will be lessened.

Revenue for January of this year increased by $110,000 over that of the same month of 1933, but substantially decreasing the cash deficit for the first nine months of the fiscal year as at Dec. 31, last, a cash deficit of $347,000, including debt retirement, not provided for by other western provinces.

Revenue in the current fiscal year was up to estimates up until October.

SAVINGS CERTIFICATES UP

For the first time since 1929 an increase has been recorded in Savings Certificates deposits, there having been an increase of $1,000,000 in the calendar year 1933. Cost of administration in this line was 4.34 per cent.

Dealing with the question of taxation, Hon. Mr. Bennett said: "As previously intimated, the government does not feel that the present taxation should be increased, at least, until the trend of the market for the new securities has been more definitely established. While some of the older securities have been materially augmented their value by the increase in the war tax rate, it is felt in view of the low scale of wages now prevailing in many industries that the tax should only be imposed as a last resort."

"The government will submit legislation at this session to eliminate the tax payable under the Income Tax Act and will recommend certain changes in the duties in the higher levels of income to make up the deficiency resulting from this change."

Turning his attention to the revenue of the capital debt, Hon. Mr. Reid said that "the government is committed, in co-operation with the provinces, to explore every possibility of refunding as much of the capital debt as is possible at the lowest rates of interest. While the market is now closed to provincial loans, there is reason to believe that the low interest rates prevailing there, may result in a change in the market. There has also been a considerable trend in the same direction in the past few weeks toward lower rates. While it is probable little more will be accomplished during this year than to refund the present amount of debt on a temporary basis, the government intends to explore the possibility of refunding at lower rates, a large part of the present debt."

On the question of reducing the present deficit at lower rates of interest, Hon. Mr. Reid said that the government has been fully discussed by the members of all parties in the House, and he did not intend, nor did he expect to, to do so at this time except to say that the government is fully cognizant of this problem and its opportunity of solving it. He said that the province will be overlooked, when and if it can be accomplished.

On the subject of the difference in receipts and expenditures between 1933 and 1934, Hon. Mr. Reid stated that "the decrease in the receipts as compared with the previous year was mostly accounted for by the payment received this year of the sale of the railways. The expenditures of main and district highways were also increased."

Pretty Helen Petch, 19-year-old Riverdale, Cal., girl, has proved that sometimes even physicians can be wrong. When Helen was eight years old, doctors declared she would have to give up acrobatic dancing because of physical difficulties.

But Helen refused and proceeded with her studies. On her recent nineteenth birthday, she gave an exhibition before a large audience of friends, which experts said never before had been accomplished in acrobatic dancing.

MAKERS OF WAR MATERIAL FOSTER FIGHTS

Henry Backs Borah's Fight Against U.S. Armament Program

PORT MYERS, Fla., March 8.—Charging that a small group of men were responsible for war through the manufacture of munitions and by fostering international distrust, Henry Ford thinks United States Senator William Borah "had the right idea" in his fight against the $600,000,000 United States navy program and other army and navy construction.

"The people in general don't want war," said Mr. Ford, "but it has been forced on them by scheming munition makers looking for enormous profits through the sale of arms."

"I do not pay much attention to the makers of war," said Mr. Ford, "but I have found out that there is not much I can do about it. The only thing I can do is to depend upon the people. In the past they have followed the war makers and now they are following the peace makers."

A Man-Made Earthquake Tumbled Cities Down

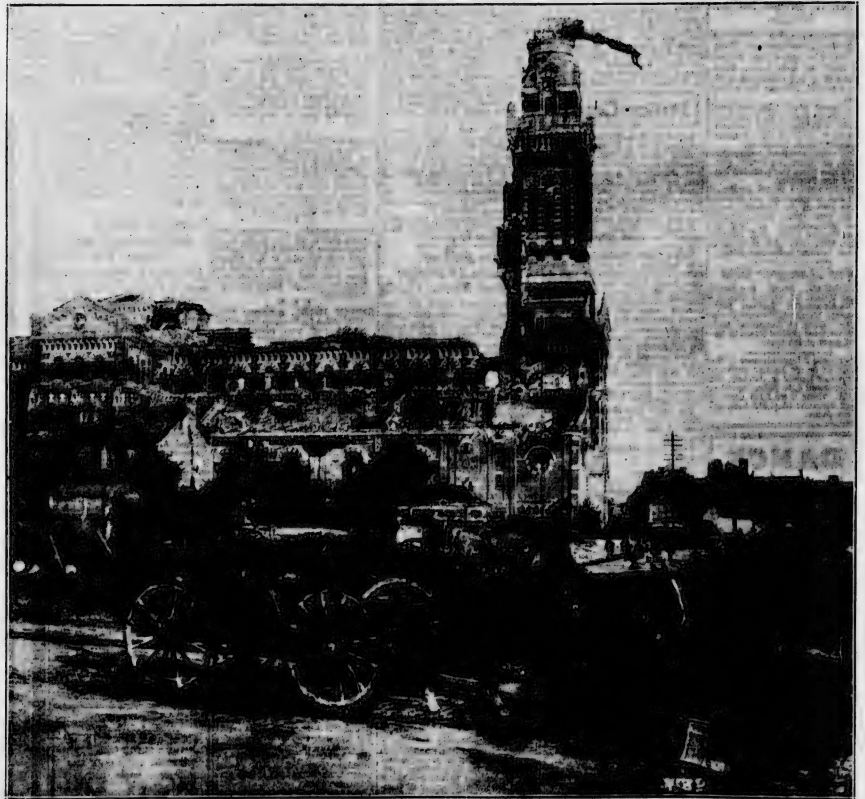

CAMBRAI WAS A SPECTACLE OF FIERY RUIN—When the Canadians entered Cambrai on October 9, 1918, within four weeks of the war's end they found that between Canadian shellfire and German pillage, it was as if an earthquake had struck the ancient city. The great retreat had begun.

THE LEANING VIRGIN OF ALBERT—This picture taken at the time the Canadians arrived in Albert in late August, 1916, to fight in the Battle of the Somme shows the church with the statue of the Virgin leaning in benediction after a shell had struck the spire. Later, this ruined church was battered to dust when the Germans shelled Albert as the concentration centre for the Somme battle.

Panoramas Show Utter Futility of Modern War

CANADIAN INFANTRY WITH THEIR TRANSPORT PASSING THROUGH YPRES, 1918—Through a silvery, ghostly city of irreparable ruin, a city that dated back to the middle ages, a city on which generations of men had lavished their love for beauty and for home, march these Canadians from three, four, five thousand miles away. The mediaeval burgomaster who dedicated the Cloth Hall never dreamed of such populations as would one day inhabit his walled city. —Official Canadian War Photo.

ON THE ROAD FROM ARRAS TO CAMBRAI—Canadian limbered wagons returning from the forward dumps on the plank road built by the engineers. The wagons used to carry rations, ammunition and so forth to a dump as near the trenches as they dared go. Then the infantry carrying parties came back in the night from their trenches to the dumps and picked up their supplies. As villages went, this was a very fair sample of 1918. —Official Canadian War Photo.

DOMART ON THE AMIENS FRONT—After the battle is over, the roads are mended, the trucks come forward into the desolation, loaded with barbed wire, iron stakes for holding the wire, planks, sheet iron and other materials. Here you see the start of an engineer's dump. From away forward, the weary infantry, when not engaged in fighting, come back as working parties, carry t his stuff forward to use in strengthening their trenches. For one day of fighting, the average man did fifty days of hard labor. But always under fire. —Official Canadian War Photo.

CAMBRAI, THE CITY HALL SQUARE, AFTER THE CANADIANS HAD GONE THROUGH—Here is the city the Caesars took from the Gauls, that the Norsemen took from the Caesars, that Charlemagne took from the Norsemen, that Spaniards, Germans, Burgundians took from one another, that the Duke of Wellington used as his headquarters against Napoleon. It was famous, at one time, for the delicate linen known as cambrie. The Canadians in the centre are not rebuilding the city, they are merely repairing the roads for traffic to pursue the Germans. —Official Canadian War Photo.

SUFFER SETBACK IN PLAYOFF GAME

Drop Western Canadian Girls' Championship Opener, 4-1

Edmonton Rustlers opened their campaign to retain the Dominion Women's hockey title they won last year as they turned back a fighting Eaton sextet from Winnipeg, 4-1.

TAKE ADVANTAGE
Opening the tilt with a strong attack, Rustlers took advantage of a nervous squad, and with Eatons slightly disorganized they piled up goals at the end of the first and second session. A brace of markers in each of the first and second periods gave the winners a four goal lead and they were never headed toward defeat at any stage of the game.

Eaton made a strong bid to triumph and their unwilling opponent was forced to play throughout the tilt. Unable to match the pace set in two fast periods, the first and second, Eaton rallied strongly in the final frame, holding their opponent off by netting the disc once. It was in this last period that the invaders' combination play started to work much better and their attacks were proving more successful. The number in attendance a number of thrills.

GOOD OPPONENT

Hazel Case, right wing, started the play that gave Rustlers their first goal. Rustlers' goalkeeper, who was in her own defence area when an Eaton attack had been broken up, Case worked her way down centre ice, crossed Eaton's blue line and fired a shot into the goal. Their 41 defeat is no disgrace as this margin of triumph is the closest Rustlers have been before in the series. They have hard pressed throughout the game.

Eleanor Tufford, sturdy left defender, was the star of Rustlers' triumph. She was strong on Rustlers' rear-guard and paced her mates well. She was the only player which were scored on solo efforts which carried her through the entire game. Rustlers' defense was a Western Canada can match her.

Walker and Hitzelkande, a Navy Reserve, were the only ones who were packed in. Rogers' defense prevented them coming on at least two occasions early in the period. Their desperate efforts were rewarded late in the period when Lambert
